

Texas in World War II

- Magnesium
- Military base
- Munitions
- Petroleum-related industries
- POW camp
- Shipbuilding
- Steel mill
- Tin
- Aircraft

TAKS PRACTICE

Most prisoner of war camps were located in the interior of Texas. Analyzing Why was this the case?

0 mi.
0 km
200
200
Albers' Conic Equal-Area projection